Farmer Bowen Heartbroken at His Young Wife's Conduct.

ferecial to the evening world, i May's Landing, N. J., May 7.—The elopement of George K. Bowen, a young man well known in Elsinboro, and the pretty young wife of Jacob Kates, a well-known larmer of wife of Jacob Kates, a well-known farmer of the Lower Creek, has created a sensation here, owing to the fact that the farmer accuses the elopers with taxing $5,000 of his cash. Bower and Mrs. Kates met at a party about three weeks ago, and hower called so frequently at the house after risk tost Kates fortasse him the house. This injunction was, however, unheaded and Bowen kept up his visits until the husband put him out of the house. The husband put him out of the house. hoose.
This so enraged Mrs. Enter that she went away with Bowen vesterday. Kates is almost heartbroken.
